

The David Doig Foundation

For every life that passes something beautiful remains.

In his life, David was an inspiration to many people. The Foundation is a memorial to him. In keeping with his values it believes that access to education should be available to everyone regardless of personal circumstances, ensuring that all individuals have the opportunity to achieve their true potential.

The David Doig Foundation is now supporting over 500 individuals across Scotland. Working in partnership with Foundation Scotland ensures that funding reaches those most in need of support.

Enhancing the life chances of children and young adults by improving literacy levels;

Increasing aspirations of young people aged 14–21 through core skills training and essential workplace competencies;

Turning disengaged youngsters into leaders and responsible citizens, becoming role models for younger children;

Enabling homeless and vulnerable young adults to unlock their creativity and express themselves through creative writing;

Supporting disadvantaged youngsters by offering a pathway to qualifications and employment;

Encouraging pupils with learning disorders and victims of domestic trauma and dysfunction to aspire to college, university or employment by offering practical and vocational opportunities;

Helping unemployed people to be re-trained into the care, hospitality and conservation sectors;

Inspiring the next generation of oil and gas trainees to receive a more realistic offshore experience by supporting the digitalisation of key equipment at Edinburgh College;

Improving the health and well-being of young people aged 12–25 by encouraging positive behavioural changes through life coaching;

Building self-confidence and self-esteem in 11–18 year olds at risk of exclusion by broadening their vision and aspirations through adventure sports and outdoor activities;

Educating young people about the environment, ecosystems, wildlife conservation and social responsibility.

Please help us continue David's legacy by providing support and funding.
